Anne Warriner, one of the trustees says:

“We are only a small charity with an income derived from interest earned from property and donations in the past. This we use to support individuals in need who live in the town. The great thing about our trustees is their local knowledge and knowing who might benefit from a bit of extra help as often people don’t like to come forward themselves. Although four of our trustees have to be re-appointed by the Town Council every four years, myself included, the same trustees have been running the charity for many years and we hope and expect that to continue. As well as the four of us who are subject to re-appointment we have two life trustees; Tony Clark and Nigel Richardson, When a new vicar is in post that person will also become one of trustees. We work well together, reacting quickly when need arises, to serve the people of the town.

If you know of anyone who might need help do contact one of the trustees”.
