

LEWIS CREIGHTON EXHIBITION

FRIDAY 31ST JULY - SUNDAY 2ND AUGUST

A collection of works by Lewis Creighton, will be brought together for the first time, on loan from family members and local residents, courtesy of Kirkbymoorside Town Council.

The Moorland Artist

Lewis Creighton was born in 1918 and grew up in Appleton-le-Moors near Kirkbymoorside. As well as being a remarkable landscape artist he was a musician, astronomer, philosopher and a pilot in the Royal Air Force.

The exhibition will be held in The Moorside Room, 9 Church Street
Friday 31st July 2pm - 5.30pm
Saturday 1st August 10am - 5.30pm &
Sunday 2nd August 10am - 3pm

Entry is FREE.

The dramatic landscape of the North York Moors significantly influenced his artistic inspiration and interpretation in later life. His handling of light and shadow and his style of oil painting gave his work a remarkable sense of depth and texture. This technique perfectly captured the rugged grace and raw beauty of the North York Moors.
