Provide a <ul style="list-style-type: none"> detailed description of the project evidence of the need for your project, and show who will benefit from it 	Since 2007, when there was the 'Tesco Threat' KMEG have produced a local shopping guide, updated each alternate year. It contains the details of the shops and businesses in the town, and is fully indexed. It also lists most of the local clubs and societies, with contact details. The purpose of the guide is to encourage people to support the local economy and maintain the varied and useful character of our high street. We have printed 1,500 copies each time, and they are made available in the Post Office, Library and Summit Bakery. They are picked up very fast, and we have to keep topping up. We also put them in Newfields Organics in Fadmoor, and the Daisy Garden Centre, so that holiday-makers and passing motorists get the idea there's something to be found in Kirkbymoorside town. A copy is often put through the letter box of newly arrived residents. 'Why not ask the shopkeepers to pay for it themselves?' Our answer is that they are having to pay out all the time for advertising in magazines, which probably doesn't do them much good. The Guide is something the Environment Group wants to give to the local traders as a symbol of our support for them in these difficult times, and we would encourage other residents to reinforce that support.
What are the full costs of the project (including VAT if applicable)	The printing cost for 1,500 copies this year will be £545. We will not be printing until September, so are just beginning to make applications for grants.
